

Director of Formation for the Episcopal Diocese of Rochester

Half-time, salaried position for a clergy person (deacon or priest)

- Could be paired with a half-time clergy position in the diocese
- May become full-time in 2026

Salary range: 37,800 – 56,700 + SECA

Benefits: Put in link for pdf of the 2025 Compensation Policy letter

Starting date: January 2025

We are looking for a faithful, passionate, self-motivated, and organized person with interest and three to five years of experience in Christian formation from cradle to grave. Our new Director of Formation would be a resource for our parishes who seek to form their members in their unique contexts including nursery care, Sunday school, youth group, young adult programs, classes for adult Inquirers, Confirmation, Reception and Reaffirmation, book and film groups, end of life conversations, and volunteer training. The director will oversee our Safe Church trainings and record keeping. Since this is a new position, the new director will work to recruit volunteers to develop a summer camp program and other diocesan events for children, youth, and young adults. The director will also work with other diocesan staff on diocesan programs such as Convention, Clergy Retreats, mission trips, and other events or trainings.

Please send a cover letter and resume to The Rt. Rev. Kara Wagner Sherer via Executive Administrator Sarah Herzog sarah@episcopalrochester.org by November 30.
